SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong State University women's cross country team earned academic honors from the US Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association, announced this week.

Head coach Michael Sergi's team compiled a cumulative team 3.50 team GPA, earning 2016 Division II Women's All-Academic Team honors in its first season of competition as a reinstated program. Teams must have compiled a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 and must have scored at an NCAA Division II regional meet to qualify for All-Academic awards.

Individually, senior Jessica Smith earned a spot on the 2016 Division II Women's All-Academic Team. Individual All-Academic honors are awarded to those athletes who have compiled a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.25 and finished among the top 30 percent of eligible runners at the regional championships and/or the top half of the field at the NCAA Championships.

Smith earns the honor for the first time, carrying a 3.51 GPA in rehabilitation sciences.
